

With the entrance of the 1934 Class there are 210 alumni on the rolls. Of this total, 108 are girls and 102 are boys.

The increasing size of the classes is shown by a comparison of periods. In the first ten years 22 were graduated; in the second ten year period, 89; while the last six classes total 99 in number.

Of those graduating, seven have died. They are Class of
Edith Erickson, 1913; Grace fass, 1914; Charles Sommer, 1915; Albert Sommer, 1922; Ida Arobio, 1926; Edward Anderson, 1924; and John Hubbard, 1928.

Of the 210 alumni only three have made their homes East of the Mississippi River. They are Bickford Shields, Urbana, Illinois; Ennes J. O'Connell, Rochester, New York; and Homer J. O'Connell, New York City.

Four couples belong to the Alumni. (That is an alumnus has married another alumnus). They are Mr. & Mrs. Clarence Sommers (Marjorie Simpson), Mr. & Mrs. Leslie Kofloed (Frances Morse), Mr. and Mrs. Hybert Neal (Irene Holmstrom), and Mr. & Mrs. George Lang (Nevada Romwall).

All six of the Lang family are members. They are Jane - 1922, George - 1925, Joe - 1929, Lawrence - 1931, John - 1932, and Mabel - 1933.

Five Gottschalks are now members and the youngest will graduate in 1938.

In 1933 there were ninety graduates at the Banquet held in the Big Meadow Cafe, and some four hundred people attended the Twelfth Annual Ball held at Arobio Hall.
